

Job announcement: Executive Director

The Port Townsend School of Woodworking is seeking a visionary and innovative Executive Director to drive the School's continued growth by expanding programming, enhancing staffing and facilities, increasing the School's enrollment and revenue; and increasing philanthropic revenue. You can find the entire job description here:

<https://www.ptwoodschool.org/employment>

Applying for the job:

1. Please send a letter of interest and a resume to jobs@ptwoodschool.org. The letter of interest should address how your skills, passion and insight align with the School and it's vision of growth.
2. If you have questions about the position please arrange a phone call with Tim Lawson (Founder and Emeritus Executive Director) by emailing him to arrange a time and date for the call. Tim can be reached at lawson.tim@gmail.com.
3. There is a rolling application process in place. The position can be open as early as July 2019. The first review of candidates will occur in the week commencing 3rd June 2019.